CLARKSVILLE, T.N. September 8, 2015 – Hankook Tire, a leading global tire company, will host an information fair for job seekers interested in employment at its new Clarksville, Tennessee plant on Tuesday, October 6th and Wednesday, October 7th, at The Wilma Rudolph Event Center, at 1190 Cumberland Drive, Clarksville.

Over the next 16 months, Hankook Tire will hire approximately 1000+ new employees for its new high-tech tire manufacturing plant currently under construction in Clarksville. The plant will be the Seoul, Korea-based company's 8th global manufacturing facility and their first in the United States. Hankook's Clarksville facility is currently hiring for engineering and administration positions and will begin full-scale production of tires October 2016.

The October 6th & 7th career information fair will share detailed information about Hankook Tire, the plant, jobs and more. Four one-hour sessions will be offered, at 4 p.m. and 6 p.m. on October 6th and 8 a.m. and 10 a.m. on October 7th. Advance registration is required to participate; to register to attend a single session, visit www.workforceessentials.com/event/. Interested candidates can bring résumés to the information fair.

Applicants can view current job postings and apply through www.jobs4tn.gov. Hankook Tire is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer committed to building a diverse applicant pool and an inclusive workforce.

Additionally, the Tennessee Department of Labor and Workforce Development's mobile Career Coach unit will be on-site at the October 6th & 7th event to assist job seekers. The Career Coach offers free usage of computers, copiers and fax machines. The computers aboard the Career Coach have internet access and are equipped with Microsoft Office software.
